

WESTWIND Gives Back

Westwind Supports the Following Organizations

Road Runner Food Bank of New Mexico provides food directly to partner agencies in the 16 counties across southern and southcentral New Mexico.

UWCNM Family Advocacy Center (FAC) provides free and confidential services for victims of interpersonal violence.

Joy Junction is dedicated to helping homeless men, women, children & families in Albuquerque by providing food, clothing, shelter & safety.

Watermelon Mountain Ranch has rescued and adopted over 150,000 animals into loving homes and is one of the largest, no-kill animal shelters and not-for-profit facilities in the Southwest.

St. Vincent De Paul Society's aim is to end poverty through systemic change and has helped more than 5.4 million people thru visits to homes, prisons, and hospitals.

Officer Street Survival Fund. Since 2006 Deputy James F. McGrane OSSF has provided advanced street survival training to more than 5,000 police officers from cities, counties, universities, and reservations from the State of New Mexico.

Carrie Tingley Hospital Foundation's mission is to enhance Carrie Tingley Hospital patients' lives and special needs children and their families throughout New Mexico—providing individualized services that bridge the gap for families with special needs.

Ronald McDonald House is a nonprofit family & children's charity dedicated to supporting families with sick children in their time of need.

Oscar Foundation is a nonprofit corporation that provides pet owners financial assistance based on need, so their pets can access surgery and physical rehabilitation to optimize mobility and quality of life.

NMSU Scholarship Foundation is dedicated to building relationships and generating support for NMSU's students, teaching, research, and public service missions.

Wild Wolf Spirit Sanctuary rescues and provides lifetime care to wolves, wolf-dogs, and other wild canines who were victims of the pet trade here in New Mexico.

Casa Angelica is a home for children and young adults with developmental disabilities, whose vision is to enable children to grow up in an environment that is loving, safe, and comfortable; "a reflection of the traditional family."